Have you thought “I’d like to try making a Flambé dessert, but been scared to try? Join us for a flambéed dessert presentation with the Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management Department Chef Pete will show you the techniques in creating these impressive looking desserts and sample them for yourself! Can’t make the demonstration time, stop by between demos and ask questions.

Yard Games

Location TBD

Come hang out and play games such as Giant Jenga, Spike Ball, Coin Toss, Can Jam and more while trying to decide your next adventure!

University Museum Tours

Join us for a student guided tour of the East and West Gallery
West Gallery - Humanhood in the Organ Mountains: Prehistory
East Gallery - TBD

Chili Pepper Institute Visit

The Chile Pepper Institute is the only international, non-profit organization devoted to education and research related to Capsicum, or Chile peppers. In addition to the institute, F&F can also visit the Chili Institute Teaching Garden. The Garden is located at the Fabian Garcia Research Center. Walk through the Botanical Garden, heading east (toward the mountains). Go through the gate in the chain link fence to our garden. Garden Guides are located in a mailbox attached to our garden sign.
